MEMORANDUM FOR THE CHAIRMAN, UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD

SUBJECT: International Intelligence Conference (U)

Reference: USIB memorandum D-10.8/3, 4 April 1967, subject: International Intelligence Conference.

1. (C) At the ad hoc meeting of the Heads of Delegation for the American, British, Canadian (ABC) Aircraft Technical Intelligence Conference held at the Defense Intelligence Agency on 18 November 1975, it was agreed that sufficient new information is available to warrant holding a one-week conference in the spring of 1976. Those systems for which significant new intelligence reveals a change in the technical parameters are shown in the proposed agenda.
2. (C) The United Kingdom will be hosting the 21st ABC Conference and desires to schedule the conference for 3-7 May 1976.
3. (C) In keeping with the recommended action, reference, and to provide adequate counterpart analysis to the U.K. and Canadian delegates, it is anticipated that the U.S. delegation will require 21 delegates. The following breakdown indicates the proposed attendees by agency: DIA - 1, (Head of Delegation); CIA - 3; NSA - 2; Air Force: AF/IN - 1, FTD - 11; Army: FSTC - 1; Navy: NISC - 2.
4. (U) Pursuant to the reference, DIA recommends that the USIB concur in the proposed conference as outlined.
